FOREWORD

With the passage of years, you may look back upon this school year as the time of our great disaster, the loss of our main school building by fire. Many will remember this year as a time when parents, faculty, and students united their efforts and marched straight ahead to the achievement of a successful school year.

This yearbook strives to picture the scholarship, the leadership, the activities, and the character of Agricola Attendance Center during that fateful year.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

When this book is opened again after a score of years, the people who are shown here will be scattered throughout the world. Only pictures and precious memories of wonderful events will remain. Wherever we are and whatever we have become, we can look back and be thankful we had a part in our school during this year. We accepted our challenge and exerted a definite drive forward.

Miss Carolyn Rush
 School Secretary

Our able and efficient school secretary is an indispensable part of our school personnel. Forever busy, Carolyn handles correspondence, keeps financial records, orders school materials, and operates the public address system. While these are considered as her major services, she performs a multiple of lesser ones which are important to a smooth running day in our school.

HOMECOMING 1963

Homecoming, 1963, was an event that will stand out in the memories of all. Long hours were spent during the entire week building club floats and making sure everything was set for the big day.

Marie was escorted onto the field by her father. The finishing touches of regality came with the crowning of the queen by Mr. C. S. Wade and the robing by Mrs. Paul Bullard.

The evening was topped off when our warriors trampled the previously undefeated East Central Hornets and defeated them by a score of 41 to 0.

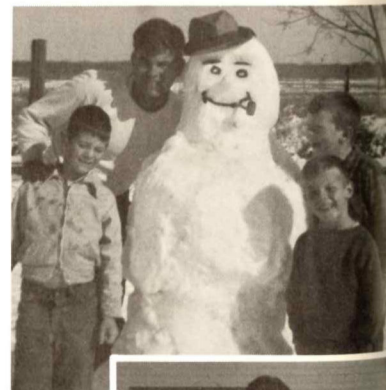

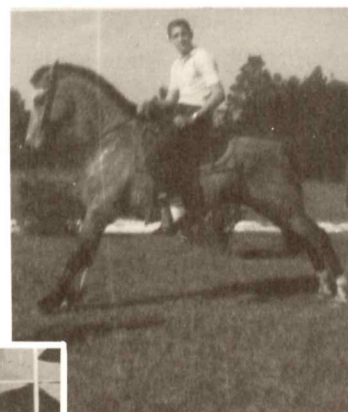

Homecoming Queen, Miss Marie Christian, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. R.W. Christian.
